Multimedia-guided visit to the European Parliament:

For individual visitors, the European Parliament offers multimedia-guided visits and, during part-sessions, the chance to attend a parliamentary sitting.

Multimedia-guided visits to the debating chamber of the European Parliament take place from Monday to Thursday at 10.00h and 15.00h and on Friday at 10.00h only.

There are no visits on official holidays or office closing days.

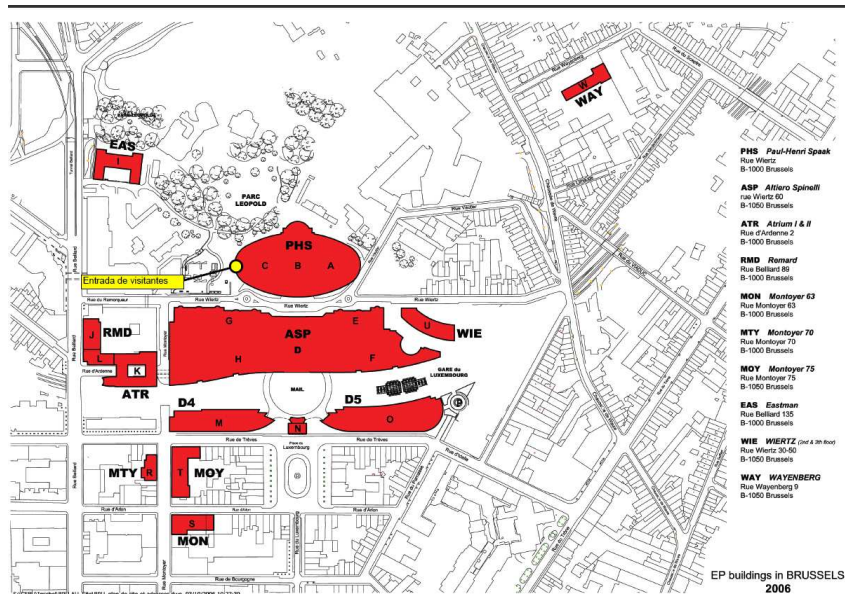

These visits are free of charge and are conducted in all of the official languages of the EU. It is not possible to reserve in advance.

If you wish to take part in an multimedia-guided visit:

- come to the visitors' entrance about 15 minutes before the start of the tour,
- for registration purposes, please bring your passport, identity card or driving licence with you.

A limited number of places is available for attending a parliamentary sitting for one hour.

Entrance of Visitants of the European Parliament: Building Paul-Henri Spaak. Rue Wiertz. (see map)
